You are invited to the ARLIS/NA MOQ fall meeting at the Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery, Concordia University, Montreal. Registration will be at the entrance of the Gallery on the ground floor of the McConnell Library Building. The meeting will be held in the exhibition space. Curator Mélanie Rainville will then join us for a tour of the exhibition Speculations. Risquer l'interprétation, featuring works by artists Raymonde April, Sorel Cohen, Kent Monkman, Adrian Norvid, Rober Racine, Philip Surrey and others.

After a short walk we will have lunch at the Star of India, 1806 Sainte-Catherine W. at Saint-Mathieu. At 2:00 we will reconvene at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts for a guided tour of this fall's major exhibition Van Gogh to Kandinsky with curator Anne Grace. ARLIS/NA MOQ member Joanne Déry will then take us to the MMFA Library for a presentation of its collection and mandate.

Please RSVP before November 26 by email to: pierre_landry@videotron.ca

Registration is $15 (free to students). The registration fee may be paid in cash or cheque at the beginning of the meeting. Lunch is not included in the registration price.

Transportation

The Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery is located in downtown Montreal at 1400 blvd. de Maisonneuve West on the ground floor of the McConnell Library Building. Métro Guy-Concordia. Bus 24. Parking on street. ARLIS/NA MOQ members travelling from outside the Montreal region are eligible for up to $70 in financial aid to attend the meeting. These funds are reserved for members who are not eligible for financial assistance from their institutions. To apply, please contact Felicity Taylor at ftaylor@sympatico.ca before November 26, 2014. The funding will be granted by random draw among the applications received, according to funds available.

We look forward to seeing you in Montréal!
